- ▲ Graves Middle School in South Whittier, California, with colorful wall art and upholstered seating areas to create an inviting atmosphere. We constructed a custom 90° corner condiment stand for this room.

- ▲ At San Geronio High School in San Bernardino, CA, the staff dining room has Greek artifacts and paintings to create a pleasing environment.

Staff Dining Rooms

◀ The staff dining in this attractive room at Cajon High School in San Bernardino, California, have the same western feeling as the students in their wild west café!

You can see the cacti in the planters between the booths and the colorful south western artwork on the walls.

◀ Tables, booths and settees provide a varied seating environment in the Cajon High School staff dining room. Planters in the center of the room with desert plants add a warm touch to the room.

◀ This is the gazebo surrounded by flowers in the school district office dining room at San Bernardino City Unified School District — the whole room is a restful and pleasant place to dine.
